Objective: Learn about God, and God’s creation

References: Genesis 1

The Lesson

Who Created the world, and everything that is in it? What about the Sun and the moon and the stars, and everything in heaven? ... Yes God created everything. There is nothing on earth or in heaven, which was not created by God. God created everything in six days. Today, we will see creation of the first day:

Creations of the First Day
- In the beginning God made the heavens and the earth, but the earth was without form and empty, and darkness was everywhere.
- So God said Let there be light, and there was light everywhere. God divided the light from darkness, and He called the light, day; and He called the darkness, night.
- On this day, God also created all the angels in heaven.

How do you think God created heaven and earth, and the angels in heaven? ... He just said "Let there be heaven and earth ... Let there be angels in heaven ... Let there be light." He created everything just by speaking.

What did God create on the First Day?
1. Heaven with all the angels in heaven.
2. Earth.
3. Light
Exercise: Color the words and the picture

First Day

Genesis 1:1

IN THE BEGINNING GOD CREATED HEAVEN AND EARTH
Objective: Learn about God, and God's creation
References: Genesis 1

The Lesson

On the last lesson, we learned that God created heaven and earth, and angels in heaven, and light on the first day. Today, we will list what God created on the other days.

2nd Day:
On this day, God said: “Let there be a sky above air and above the water.” And the sky appeared above and clouds, gathered in the sky, and God called the sky heaven.

3rd Day
When God created the earth, it was all covered with water. So, on the third day God said: “Let the waters on earth come together into great seas and oceans, and let dry land appear. Let trees, grass and green things grow on the earth and bring fruit and seeds.” Then the dry land appeared as God commanded, and fruits and plants grew on earth.

4th Day
On the 4th day, God said: “Let the day be divided from the night. Let the sun and the moon and the stars appear in the sky.” So, he created the sun to give light on earth in the day, and the stars and the moon to give light at night.

5th Day
On the fifth day, God said, “Let the waters be filled with fish and let birds fly in the skies.” So, there were different kinds of fish, small and big in the waters, and different kinds of birds also flying in the sky.

6th Day
Then God said: “Let there be animals on earth, beasts, cattle and every kind of crawling creature.” So there were different kinds of animals on earth. There were animals that live in the forest, like lions and Elephants, and there were also household animals, like cows and sheep.

All these God created by speaking. Isn't that amazing. He just said, let there be this & that, and everything that He said to be there, was created.

What did God create from the 2nd day to the six day?
1. The sky
2. The dry land
3. The sun and the stars in heaven
4. All kinds of fish in the waters, and birds in the sky
5. And all kinds of animals on earth.

Creation - III
September - 4th Week

Objective: Learn about how God created Man
References: Genesis 1 & 2

The Lesson

Do you remember all of God's creation from the past lessons? Who created heaven & earth, and the angels? ... What about the sun and the moon and the stars? ... What about the fish in the waters and the birds that fly, and all the animals on earth? ... Yes, God created everything. How did he create all these? ... He created all these by saying Let there be this & that, and everything He said was there.

On the last day of creation, after God created all the animals on earth, He said, "Let us create man in our own image." But this time instead of saying, "Let there be man" He made Him with His own hands, and gave Him life. But Adam was lonely, so God made Adam sleep, and He took a bone from his side and made a woman.

God put Adam & Eve in the Garden of Eden, and made them a king and a queen over everything on earth. So, all the animals came to Adam and he gave them all names.

Now that we have covered all of God's creation, can you answer the following questions about creation?

1. How did God create Adam?
2. How did he create a Woman?
3. Who gave names to all the animals?
4. What is your favorite animal?

Adam and Eve are God's children, because He created them, and gave them everything they need. We are also His Children, and God cares for us too, because He is our Father.
God put Adam & Eve in the Garden of Eden, and made them a king and a queen over everything on earth.

Introduction
Do you still remember how to make the sign of the cross? ... Good. Today we will learn the power of making the sign of the cross.

The Lesson

Once upon a time, there was a young man whose name was St. George. He loved God very much. One day he went to a city where the people feared and worshiped a dragon. Just before he entered the city, the dragon came to St. George. But St. George was not afraid of him. He had a secret weapon. The Dragon came to kill St. George. When St. George saw the dragon coming to him, he immediately made a sign of the cross, like this: (Make the sign of the cross). Immediately, the dragon became weak and fell down to the floor. St. George stabbed the dragon with his spear, and killed him. The people were happy that the dragon they feared was dead. St. George taught the people about Jesus Christ, and many people believed. Two thousand years ago, on a cold night, Jesus Christ was born in a manger, at a place called Bethlehem in Jerusalem. Do you know what a manger is? ... The Virgin Mary, and Joseph went to Bethlehem to register for population count, but they could not find a place to stay. The only place they could find was a manger. But the angel said to them, "Fear not, for I bring you good news of great joy ... there is born to you this day in the city of David a Savior, who is Christ the Lord. And this will be the sign to you. You will find a Baby wrapped in cloths, lying in a manger."

And suddenly, there were with the angel many other angels praising God by saying: "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace and goodwill toward His people!" The Lesson

There was a prophet called Samuel. Do you know what a prophet is? A prophet is someone God sends to tell His messages to the people. Once, God told Samuel to fill his horn with oil and go to a man called Jesse. He told Samuel that he is going to make one of the sons of Jesse a king.

Samuel went to Jesse as God told him. When Jesse and his neighbors saw him, they asked him why he came. They knew that he was a man of God, and thought that he was going to tell them a message from God. Samuel told them that he came to sacrifice and told them to clean themselves and come to the sacrifice.

When the first of Jesse's sons came, Samuel thought this was the one God had chosen. But God said to him he wasn't the one. He told him not to look at his height and body, because man looks at outward appearance, but God looks at the heart. Jesse made all his sons pass before Samuel, but God did not choose any of them. So Samuel asked Jesse if there is anyone else left. Jesse said there is the youngest, but he is keeping the sheep.

Samuel told Jesse to bring him quickly. When the youngest son, David came in, he was glowing, and had a beautiful, and graceful appearance. God told Samuel to anoint David with oil, for this was the one he chose. So, Samuel took the horn of oil and anointed David, and the Spirit of God came upon Him.

Saul was disobedient to God, and thus the Spirit of God left him. When the Spirit of God departed from Saul, he was troubled with an evil spirit. Saul called his servants and told them to find him someone who plays the harp. One of his servants said that he had seen David, the son of Jesse play the harp, and that he sings and plays it pretty good.

So, Saul sent for Jesse to send his son David to him, and Jesse sent David to Saul and gave him a donkey and bread and wine for the road. When Saul saw David, he loved him greatly and made him his armor bearer. So, David stayed with Saul, and played the harp for him.

When Goliath saw David, he said, “Come here, and I will give your flesh to the birds.” But David replied, “You come against me with sword and spear but I come to you in the name of the Lord.”

David reached into his bag, took a stone, and slung it at Goliath. He hit him on the head, and the giant fell down on his face. David believed that God would give him glory, and with God’s help, he killed the giant.

This is also a story of great friendship between David, and Saul’s son, Jonathan.

The Lesson

Saul was the king of Israel. He had a son called Jonathan. Jonathan loved David very much, after David killed the giant Goliath. Jonathan gave David his own cloth and his sword.

David became famous in Israel, even more famous than King Saul. Saul became very jealous of him because of this and wanted to kill him. One day, when David was playing a harp for Saul, he threw a spear at David to kill him, but David escaped.

Jonathan said to his father, Saul, "Do not sin against your servant David; because he has not sinned against you, and he has been good to you." Saul listened to Jonathan and promised not to kill David. But Saul tried to kill David with a spear again while he was playing the harp for him.

Saul said to Jonathan, "As long as David lives, you will not be king." But Jonathan cared more for his friend David than being a king. He told David that his father is determined to kill him, and told him that he has to go away. They met in secret, and cried because they didn't want to part, but David had to go away from Saul. And David promised him he would. Today, we are going to see how David kept his promise.

The Lesson

After David fled from King Saul, the Philistines fought against Israel. Saul and his three sons including Jonathan, David's friend, died in the battle. When David heard the death of Saul and Jonathan, he cried a lot.

After Saul died, David became the new king of Israel. When he became a king he remembered his promise to his friend Jonathan, to show kindness to his family. So David asked his servants, "Is there anyone of the house of Saul, that I may show him kindness for Jonathan's sake?" David's servants brought someone who was Saul's servant. The servant told them that Jonathan had a son. So, King David had Jonathan's son called to him. When Jonathan's son came to David, he fell down on David's feet, as it was the custom to greet kings.

Jesus said to him, "Reach your fingers and touch My hands; put it also on My side, and be not faithless but believing." After the women heard what the angels, and also Jesus Christ Himself told them what to do, they ran to the disciples, and told them what they had seen and heard. When the disciples heard this, they immediately ran to Jesus' tomb, and found it empty as the women had said. So they went to Galilee to meet Jesus according to the message the women brought for them. When they arrived in Galilee, they saw Jesus Christ and worshipped Him. They were very happy again, because they had been very sad because of His death.

Then Jesus said to them, "Go and teach all people, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all things that I have commanded you."

Jesus sent His disciples to teach and baptize all nations, and they obeyed and went throughout the world to do what He had commanded them.

Objective: Learn the events of Christ's ascension.

References: Acts 1:6 - 11

Introduction
Do you remember what we talked about angels in previous lessons? We said that they are messengers of God, and they bring good news to us. We have seen two examples of good news from angels before. Today, we are going to see another news by angels, and learn the events of the Ascension of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, into heaven.

The Lesson
Jesus Christ appeared to His disciples many times after His resurrection, and taught them and also commanded them to go teach and baptize all nations. After 40 days, He told them that it was time for Him to go. But He promised to send them the Holy Spirit. Then He blessed them, and as He spoke, He was taken up, and disappeared into a cloud out of their sight. They were sad to see Him disappear from them.

As the disciples looked up into heaven when Jesus was taken up, two angels in white dress stood by them, and said to them, "Why do you stand looking up into heaven? This same Jesus, who is taken up from you into heaven shall so come the same way as you have seen Him go into heaven." The disciples were happy to hear these words from the angels, and they went back together rejoicing.

Exercise
1) What did Jesus Christ command the disciples to do after His Resurrection?
2) How many days did Jesus stay on earth teaching the disciples after His Resurrection?
3) What did the angels tell the disciples, as they stood looking up as Jesus Christ ascended into heaven?

Introduction
Last week we learned about the ascension of Jesus Christ into heaven. Today we are going to learn about what Jesus Christ told His disciples before he went up to heaven, and the things that happened according to what He told them.

The Lesson

Forty days after Jesus Christ was risen from the dead, He gathered the disciples at a place called Mount of Olive. He told His disciples to stay in Jerusalem until they have received the Holy Spirit. He told them that they would have power and courage. He commanded them to teach about Him to all nations after they receive the Holy Spirit. Then He blessed them and disappeared in the cloud.

The disciples stayed in Jerusalem together as Jesus has commanded them. Ten days after Jesus went up to heaven, the Holy Spirit came down like fire while they were all gathered together. And they received power and the gift to speak many languages. There were many people that gathered from different countries who spoke different languages. But they could all hear the disciples speak in their languages.

Peter, standing with the other disciples taught the people about Jesus Christ, and 3000 people believed in Jesus Christ on this day because of His teaching.

The day, on which the Holy Spirit descended and the disciples received the gift of the Holy Spirit, is called Pentecost, which means the 50th day, because it is the 50th day after the Resurrection of Jesus Christ.

Exercise
1) What is the Resurrection? What is the Ascension?
2) How did the disciples receive power on the day of Pentecost?
3) How many people believed in Jesus Christ on the day of Pentecost?

St. Peter's First Miracle
Easter 8th Week

Objective: Learn about St. Peter's miracle at the Beautiful Gate.

References: Acts 3

Introduction
Ten days after the Ascension of Jesus Christ into heaven, the Holy Spirit came into the house where the disciples were gathered, and filled the room. They received the Holy Spirit and they also could speak many languages. They went and preached about Jesus Christ as commanded them, performing many miracles in His name. Today we are going to learn the first miracle of St. Peter, after receiving the Holy Spirit.

The Lesson

Once upon a time, Peter and John were going to a temple for prayer. (what is a temple?) The entry of the temple was called the Beautiful Gate. There was a man at this gate, who could not walk ever since he was born. He always stayed at the Beautiful Gate to beg for money, food, silver, gold, clothing, and other material things. When Peter and John came to the temple, he called to them hoping to get something from them.

Peter and John stopped at the entry and Peter said to him, "I do not have silver and gold, but I will give you what I have, in the name of Jesus of Nazareth, rise and walk." Then he took his right arm and lifted him up. Immediately, the man stood up, and could walk.

The man was very happy to be able to walk. He went inside with Peter and John, and praised God for healing him. The people saw him walking and praising God, and were amazed at the miracle.

Jesus Christ told the disciples that great signs and miracles would follow those who believe in Him. As He said, the disciples were performing great miracles, casting out demons and healing the sick as we have seen in the story.

1) How many days after the Ascension of Jesus Christ did the disciples receive the Holy Spirit?
2) What was the entry to the temple called?

Introduction
Do you remember who St. Peter is? ... He is one of the 12 disciples of Jesus Christ. Today, we are going to learn how he was freed from prison by an angel of God.

The Lesson

Once upon a time there was a king whose name was Herod. He was a bad king. He treated the disciples and the friends of Jesus very badly, because he didn't want them to believe in Jesus Christ or teach about Him.

Once upon a time King Herod put St. Peter, one of Jesus Christ's disciples, in prison, because he was teaching the people about Jesus. When St. Peter was in prison, he was not afraid. He knew that God was with him. In the evening, an angel of the Lord suddenly appeared to St. Peter while he was sleeping in prison, and a light shined around the angel.

The angel woke up St. Peter and told him to put on his sandals and clothes and follow him. St. Peter's hand and legs were chained, but the chains fell off his hands and feet. St. Peter was free again. The angel led him out of the prison to the street.

St. Peter went back to his home. When St. Peter came back home everybody was happy because they were all praying for him to be free again and come back home safely. God has listened to their prayers and sent His angel to set free.

Introduction

Today we are going to learn about a prophet named Elijah. Do you remember what a prophet is? A prophet is a man of God, who tells the people messages from God, and teaches them to keep the commandment of God.

The Lesson

There was a king of Israel whose name was Ahab. He used to worship idols. Do you know what idols are? Idols are statues that some people build, and offer sacrifices for them, or worship them. This was something against the commandment of God, which says, "Do not worship any other gods." Because of this, Elijah told Ahab that there would not be rain in Israel, and as a result there was drought.

But because Elijah kept God's commandment, God told him to go to a certain small river, and said that he would command ravens to feed him. A raven is a large bird that looks like an eagle. Elijah went to the small river God told him to go to. The ravens brought him bread and meat everyday, and he drank from the small stream of river.

Conclusion:

We need to obey God's commandments always. If we do this, God always protects us even in time of hardship. God sent the ravens to take Elijah bread and meat, when there was no rain and food because of the sins of Ahab and the people. God cares for us too.

Introduction
Last week we saw how God cared for Elijah by sending ravens to feed him. We are going to see how God kept on caring for Elijah and how God blessed the house of a widow because of him.

The Lesson
Do you remember the story from last week? Ravens were bringing Elijah food, and he was drinking from the small river God told him to go to. But after some time, the river dried up because there had been no rain in the land. Do you remember why it stopped to rain? Because the king, Ahab was worshipping idols. So, God told Elijah to go to a woman whose husband had died. A woman whose husband had died is called a widow.

So, Elijah went to the widow, and he found her gathering sticks. He called her and asked her to bring him water, and bread. She told him that she doesn't have bread, but only a handful of flour in a pot, and oil. She told him that she is gathering sticks to cook the last of what is left for her and her son. But Elijah told her not to fear, but to go make one for him first, and make more for her and her son also. He told her that her flour and oil would never be finished until God sends rain again.

So, she went and baked bread for Elijah, and also for herself and for her son. When Elijah came, she had only a handful of flour, and little oil, but both the flour and oil lasted for a long time as Elijah promised her.

Conclusion:
God sends his blessings through holy people. Because the woman served the prophet Elijah, God blessed her house, and everything she had. Because of this she and her son were saved from dying of hunger.

Elijah & the Widow - II
July 4th Week

Objective: Learn about how Elijah saved a widow's son from death, and how God continued __________to bless the widow's house through Elijah.

References: 1 King 7

Introduction

The last couple of Sundays we learned about how God cared for Elijah by sending ravens to feed him, and also how God blessed the house of a widow and multiplied her flour and oil to last for a long time, because of Elijah. Today we will learn about another miracle that happened in the house of the widow through Elijah again.

The Lesson

Elijah survived a drought season that came upon the people because of the sin of King Ahab, by feeding what ravens brought him, and later by taking shelter in a widow's house. Several days after Elijah went to the widow, her only son became very sick, and he died.

The widow was very sad, and cried to Elijah, saying, "O Man of God, have you come to take my son to remind me of my sin?" Elijah asked her to give him her son, and he carried him up to his room. He laid him on his bed, and prayed to God saying, "O Lord My God, I pray to You, let this child's soul come into him again."

What do you think happened? The Lord heard the voice of Elijah, and returned the soul of the child into him again. Elijah then took the child down, and delivered him to his mother, and said, "See, your son lives."

Conclusion:

Elijah saved the life of the widow's son twice: first when God blessed the flour and the oil they had to last for a long time so that they would not die of hunger, and second when God heard his prayer and revived the child again. We have seen three miracles in the stories of Elijah in the last three lessons:

1. Ravens feeding Elijah,
2. God's blessing of one meal's worth of flour and oil to last for a long time,
3. God heard the prayer of Elijah and returned the soul of the widow's son into him again.

Exercise

1) How did Elijah survive the drought season?
2) What happened to the widow's son?
3) How did Elijah save the life of the widow and her son?

Introduction
During the last few weeks we learned how God cared for Elijah by sending ravens to feed him, how God blessed the little flour and oil of a widow to last for a long time because of her kindness to Elijah, and how God heard the prayers of Elijah, and raised the widow's son from death. Today we will learn about how God took Elijah up to heaven.

The Lesson
The prophet Elijah had a follower who used to serve him, called Elisha. Do you remember what a prophet is? Once upon a time, God called Elijah to go to Jordan. So, Elijah went to Jordan with Elisha. Fifty other prophets also followed them to see what would happen, because they knew that God had called Elijah. When they came to the Jordan River, Elijah hit the water with his mantle (A mantle is clothes that is usually laid upon and wrapped around a shoulder.). And the water was divided into two and they passed through the dry land.

After they crossed the Jordan River, Elijah said to Elisha, "Ask what I shall do for you before I am taken away from you." Elisha answered, "Let a double portion of your spirit be upon me." Elijah told him that he asked a hard question, but told him that it would be done for him if Elisha saw him when he is taken from him.

And as they kept on their way talking, chariots and horses of fire appeared, and came between them. And Elijah was taken up to heaven.

As Elijah was taken, Elisha cried, "My father, my father..." Then he could not see Elijah anymore, but he took his mantle with which Elijah parted the Jordan River. Then he returned and hit the water with the mantle as Elijah did, and the water parted into two. So, he passed through dry land.

The prophets who were watching all these things from afar said that the spirit of Elijah was upon Elisha.

Conclusion:
Elijah was a man of God, whom God took up to heaven because of his obedience and holiness. Elisha left his father's and his mother's house and followed Elijah because he knew that Elijah was a man of God. Because he served Elijah, and also obeyed him, Elijah asked him what he could do for him before he was taken. Elisha asked for Elijah's spirit to be upon him two fold. Elisha took Elijah's mantle when Elijah was taken up to heaven, and the spirit of Elijah also was upon him.

Elijah Praying
Daniel in the Lion's Den

August: 2nd Week

Objective: Learn that God can save us from anything if we believe in him.

References: Daniel 6

Introduction

Do you remember the story of Elijah ... how God took care of him in times of hardship, and also how God blessed the house of a widow through Elijah? Today, we are going to learn about how God saved another prophet from a lion.

The Lesson

Once upon a time, a king called Darius declared that no one in his country could pray to God. The king said anyone who prays would be thrown into a den of lions. There was a man of God, called Daniel living in the country. He used to open his windows and pray three times a day. When Daniel heard what the king had declared, he continued to open his window and pray three times a day as usual.

There were people in the country who were jealous of Daniel, because the king had given Daniel a high position in his country. They saw Daniel praying with his windows open, and they went to the king and told him that Daniel broke the king's law. So, the king commanded for Daniel to be thrown into the den of lions.

Then early the next morning, the king came to see what had happened to Daniel. He came close to the den and said, "O Daniel, servant of the living God, is your God, able to deliver you from the lions?" Then Daniel replied, "My God has sent his angel and has shut the lions' mouths, and they have not hurt me." The king was glad to hear that Daniel was still alive, and he ordered his servants to take him out. So, Daniel came out, and he was not hurt at all because he believed in God.

Kind Darius made a new declaration for everybody to worship and fear the God of Daniel, "for He is the living God ... He delivers and rescues, and He works signs and wonders in heaven and on earth..."

Conclusion:

If we believe in God, He saves us from anything, as He saved Daniel from the lions. He sends His angels, as He did for Daniel, to save us from lions, or fire, other things.

Repeat these words of King Darius:

- The God of Daniel is the living God.
- He saves and He rescues.
- He works signs and wonders in heaven and on earth.

2) How many times a day did Daniel pray?
3) Why was Daniel thrown in to a den of lions? Did the lions heart him?

Introduction

What is a prophet? ... A prophet is a messenger of God who teaches the people to keep the commandment of God, and also tells of God's messages. Today, we are going to learn about the childhood of one of the God's prophets called Samuel. He was the child of God loving parents, Hannah and Elkanah.

The Lesson

The parents of Samuel, Hannah & Elkanah were very good people who loved God very much. But they didn’t have any children. This made Hannah very sad. So she went to the temple one day and started to cry, asking and praying that God may give her a baby. She promised to give the child to serve in the temple if God gave her a child. God listened to her prayers and gave her a son and they named him Samuel. Hannah and Elkanah took Samuel to the temple to fulfill their promise, and Samuel lived and grew up in the temple.

One day while Samuel was sleeping, he heard someone call his name. He got up and ran to the priest, Eli thinking that he had called him. He said to the priest “Here I am”, but the priest told him to go back to sleep because he hadn’t called him. So Samuel went back to sleep. But he heard the voice calling him again, so he got up and ran to the priest and said to him “Here I am”. The priest told him to go back again because he hadn’t called him. This happened for the third time.

When Samuel went to the priest again thinking that he had called him, the priest realized that God was trying to speak to Samuel. So he told Samuel to go back and say, “Speak, Lord, for your servant hears”, and to listen carefully. When Samuel heard the voice calling him again he said, “Speak for your servant hears”. Then God started to speak to Samuel and He told him that He was going to punish the people of Israel because they weren’t listening to God.

Conclusion:

- He was obedient – when he thought that the priest was calling him, he ran to him immediately to see what he wanted. He didn’t take his time or pretend not to hear him.
- God wanted to talk to Samuel even though he was a little boy because He loved him. God wants to talk to us too because He loves us no matter how small we are.
- Even though Samuel was a little boy, he served God and did good things. We too must do good and avoid doing bad things.

Behavior in Church
August: 4th Week

Objective: Learn how to behave and worship in the house of God.

References: Matthew 21:12-17

Introduction
A church is a special place because it is a house of God. Preparation to come to the house of God starts from home. We have to be clean, and dress neatly. Today we are going to see a story about what Jesus Christ did to people who did not respect the house of God.

The Lesson

One day, when Jesus went into the temple in Jerusalem, He found the people inside selling oxen, sheep, doves and exchanging money. What is a temple? ... Jesus was angry. Why do you think the Lord was upset? He wanted the people to respect and honor the church. So, He said to them, Take these out, do not make my Father's house, a house of merchandize. My house shall be called a house of prayer". And he drove them out of the temple.

Do we want the Lord to be upset with us? So how should we behave?

A church is a house of God, therefore a house of prayer. We should do the following when we come to church:

- We should be clean and also have clean cloth.
- We should take our shoes off when we go inside.
- Once we are inside the church, we should stand or sit (if tired) in one place until Holy Communion.
- You should make the sign of the cross before you go inside the church. Do you remember how to make the sign of the cross? ...

If we do all these things, Jesus will be happy with us, and He will bless us.

Conclusion:

We should respect the church and the priests because the church is the house of God, and therefore it is called a house of prayer. God is present in the church all the time. During the liturgy, the angels and the saints also come and join us.

Introduction

Do you receive Qurban on Sundays? Do you know what it is? Today, we are going to learn about it, so that we all know what Qurban is, and why we receive it.

The Lesson

During his life on earth, Jesus Christ taught the people that unless they eat His body, and drink His blood, they couldn't inherit their kingdom of God. The people were wondering how Jesus Christ would give them His body and His blood.

One evening, He was sitting with his disciples around a table. Disciples are His followers whom He chose to follow Him. Then he picked up a bread, and blessed it, gave it to them, and said, "Take it, this is My body." Then he took a cup of fresh wine, blessed it, gave it to them, and said, "Drink from it, all of you. For this is My blood of the new covenant, which is shed for many for the remission of sins."

Do you understand what Our Lord Jesus Christ did? He blessed the bread, and changed it into His flesh. He blessed the fresh wine, and changed it into His blood. This is what Qurban is: It is the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ.

He told the disciples to do the same. So, when the priest prays over the bread inside the holy of holies at church, it becomes the body of Jesus Christ, and the wine becomes His blood.

Conclusion:

Qurban is the body and blood of Jesus Christ. It is the body and blood of Jesus Christ that children and grown ups receive near the end of Sunday Liturgy prayers. We receive Qurban because it removes our sins, as Jesus Christ said: "Take it, this is My Body... This is My Blood which is shed for the remission of sins."

The Lesson

Many people used to follow Jesus Christ because they have heard of His miracles. Once upon a time, he saw many people coming to him, and asked one of His disciples, "Where shall we buy bread that these may eat?" The disciple replied that they couldn't buy enough for everyone.

A disciple named Andrew told Jesus that there was a man who had five loaves of bread and two fish. Jesus took the five loaves of bread and the two fish and blessed the food. He told the disciples to give the bread and the fish to the people. The disciples took the baskets of bread and fish and gave to the 5000 people as much as they wanted.

After they had finished eating, Jesus told them to gather the leftover, and they collected twelve baskets of leftovers.

Conclusion:

- Jesus fed five thousand people with only two loaves of bread, and five fish. Do you remember of a story where God gave his people food from heaven?
- If we follow Jesus Christ, he provides us with our needs, as he provided for the people who followed him in this story.
